CHARTER AND TERMS OF REFERENCE OF THE NOMINATING/CORPORATE GOVERNANCE/ COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

ROLE AND OBJECTIVE

The purpose of the Nominating/Corporate Governance/Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) is to assist the board of directors (the “Board”) of the Corporation in fulfilling its responsibilities relating to:

- Identifying and recommending candidates for election or appointment to the Board to be put before the annual shareholders meeting or the Board in the event of a vacancy on the Board and oversee the Corporation’s process for director orientation and assessment.
- The development of the Corporation’s approach to matters concerning corporate governance and, from time to time, reviewing and making recommendations to the Board as to such matters.
- The human resource policies and compensation of its directors, officers and employees of the Corporation and its subsidiaries in the context of the budget and business plan of the Corporation.
- Succession planning in relation to the Board and senior management.

MEMBERSHIP OF COMMITTEE

1. The Committee shall be comprised of at least three (3) directors of Caldwell, none of whom are members of management of Caldwell and all of whom are “unrelated directors” (as such term is used in the Report of the Toronto Stock Exchange on Corporate Governance in Canada) and “independent” (as such term is used in Multilateral Instrument 52-110).
 2. The Board shall appoint the Committee Chair, who shall be an unrelated director.
 3. Each member shall hold office until his or her term as a member of the Committee expires or is terminated.

CHARTER AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF COMMITTEE

Nominating and Corporate Governance:

1. In addition to any other duties and authorities delegated to it by the Board from time to time, the Committee will have the authority and responsibility for
 - (a) Reviewing annually the mandates of the Board and ensuring that each committee of the Board annually reviews and recommends to the Board such amendments to its mandate as it believes are necessary or desirable;
 - (b) Preparing and recommending to the Board annually a statement of corporate governance practices to be included in the Corporation's annual report or information circular as required by the Toronto Stock Exchange and any other regulatory authority;
 - (c) To make recommendations to the Board as to which directors should be classified as "independent" directors, "related" directors or "unrelated" directors pursuant to any such report or circular;
 - (d) Reviewing on a periodic basis the composition of the Board and ensuring that an appropriate number of independent directors sit on the Board, analyzing the needs of the Board and recommending nominees who meet such needs.
 - (e) Assessing, at least annually, the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, the committees of the Board and the contribution of individual directors, including considering the appropriate size of the Board;
 - (f) Recommending suitable candidates for nominees for election or appointment as directors, and recommending the criteria governing the overall composition of the Board and governing the desirable individual characteristics for directors;
 - (g) As required, developing, for approval by the Board, an orientation and education program for new recruits to the Board;
 - (h) Acting as a forum for concerns of individual directors in respect of matters that are not readily or easily discussed in a full Board meeting, including the performance of management or individual members of management or the performance of the Board or individual members of the Board;
 - (i) Developing and recommending to the Board for approval and periodically reviewing structures and procedures designed to ensure that the Board can function effectively and independently of management;
 - (j) Reviewing succession plan, including making recommendations to the board of directors regarding appointments of corporate officers and senior management;
 - (k) Reviewing annually the Committee's Mandate and Terms of Reference
 - (l) Reviewing and considering the engagement at the expense of the Corporation of professional and other advisors by any individual director when so requested by any such director;

- (m) Establishing, reviewing and updating periodically a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the “Code”) and ensuring that management has established a system to monitor compliance with this code;
- (n) Establishing, reviewing and updating periodically a Whistleblower Policy and ensuring that management has established a system to monitor compliance with this code; and
- (o) Reviewing management’s monitoring of the Corporation’s compliance with the organization’s Code.

Compensation:

1. The Committee shall formulate and make recommendations to the Board in respect of compensation issues relating to directors and employees of the Corporation. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Committee shall have the following duties:
 - (a) To review the compensation philosophy and remuneration policy for employees of the Corporation and recommend to the Board changes to improve the Corporation’s ability to recruit, retain and motivate employees;
 - (b) To review and recommend to the Board cash and/or share-based compensation to be paid to members of the Board;
 - (c) To receive annually from the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation the Chief Executive Officer’s evaluation of the performance of each senior officer who reports to the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation;
 - (d) To review and recommend annually to the Board performance objectives and the compensation package for the Chief Executive Officer;
 - (e) To recommend to the Board, on the recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer, the annual compensation and benefits package for senior management positions within the Corporation, including long term incentive plans as appropriate;
 - (f) To review management’s recommendations for proposed stock option, restricted stock unit, performance stock unit or such other share purchase plans and make recommendations in respect thereof to the Board;
 - (g) To determine and recommend for approval of the Board any bonuses to be paid to officers of the Corporation and to establish at the start of the year targets or criteria for the payment of such bonuses, if appropriate;
 - (h) To approve and submit the Nominating/Corporate Governance/Compensation Committee’s report for inclusion in the Annual Information Form and proxy statement, including the Compensation Committee Report required to be therein; and

- (i) To review executive compensation disclosure before the Corporation publicly discloses this information.
